

Terms and Conditions

Entry to Derbyshire Open Arts is subject to the following terms and conditions: please read and accept the conditions before paying your fee.

1. Acceptance by Derbyshire Open Arts of this application entitles the artist to one year's membership of the organisation, which is run in accordance with its Constitution, a copy of which is available for inspection on request. Derbyshire Open Arts reserves the right to decline any application deemed unsuitable for the event.
2. Each artist agrees to publicise the event to the best of their ability.
3. All appropriate fees must be paid after the application process. An application will not be valid until payment of the £15 administration fee is received. Should an artist subsequently decide not to take part, fees will not be refunded after the closing date.
4. Individual artists will only be allowed the stated number of 4 images and 500 words for each entry.
5. Derbyshire Open Arts will base the production of advertising material on the information provided by the artists in the application. Derbyshire Open Arts reserves the right to exclude, edit or decline any content deemed to be inappropriate or offensive. It is the responsibility of each applicant to ensure all details are correct. Derbyshire Open Arts accepts no liability, direct or consequential, for any errors or omissions in its advertising and promotional material.
6. All work displayed must be the artist's own.
7. Derbyshire Open Arts also reserves the right to use images supplied by the artists in future publicity material.

Please agree these terms and conditions on your application form.
