Welcome to Derbyshire Open Arts (Plus) 2017

your opportunity to visit artists and artisans throughout our beautiful county, and maybe even buy a work of art to take home!

Bank Holiday weekend 27th, 28th, 29th May. Plus optional extra days 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th 31st, May, 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th June. Extra days open stated in the brochure with more information on the website.

Opening hours 10.00am - 5.00pm unless otherwise stated in individual entries

This is our eleventh year and, one in which we are building on previous success by trying some new ideas. As well as the usual Spring Bank Holiday 3 day event, many artists will now open (on selected days) through a further 6 days. This is the 'Plus' part of the event, and will give everyone a little more time to get around to seeing the artists and venues they want to see. With nearly 300 artists taking part last year, this was becoming a challenge!

Whether you are an artist, a visitor or both, we hope you will take this extended opportunity to track down some of the more 'off the beaten track' venues and artists, who will be delighted to welcome you.

Our 'Open Arts' event covers venues throughout Derbyshire and is free to all visitors. We request that artists ensure all material on show is suitable for family viewing. Many venues will be accessible to wheelchairs, but it is advisable to check the access symbols on each venue's information.

Derbyshire Open Arts is a volunteer led organisation, run for and by artists and supporters of the arts in Derbyshire. It is funded entirely by artists' subscriptions and our advertisers. Please do support our advertisers, where you have the opportunity, as they are helping us to keep the event running.

Thank you for picking up this brochure; you will find further copies distributed throughout Derbyshire and beyond, in libraries, hotels, galleries, cafes etc. It is also available online at www.derbyshireopenarts.co.uk

Finally; if you are inspired by what you have seen and experienced through Derbyshire Open Arts, why not join our team? You can contact us to offer help with the 2018 event via info@derbyshireopenarts.co.uk or by writing to Derbyshire Open Arts, C/o Cromford Studio & Gallery, The Market Place, Cromford, Derbys. Most importantly, enjoy the event!

How to use this brochure

Artists are listed in approximate order of the geographical location of their venues on the map in the centre pages. The map is an overall guide only. On the artist's entry there is a description of the work, venue contact details and directions, and extra days opening (provided by the artists). A grey background denotes artists sharing a venue, with the directions to the venue at the top. Detailed location maps can be found by entering the post code at any map website or by looking at the artist's page on our website.

Every effort has been made to ensure the information is accurate, however if you are making a special trip or travelling a long distance, we advise you to check with the artist in advance to confirm availability.

Olinda Everett Ceramics

I hand-build with pieces of clay, sometimes layering or arranging them to form pieces that may or may not be functional. The work is decorated with stamping, slips and glazes; it is fired in oxidation and is informed by ritual and traditional Portuguese forms.

I enjoy working and developing ideas with acrylic sheet, often mimicking textile techniques. It is purely experimental and I work towards the characteristics of harmony and discipline. Starting with a two dimensional piece the work builds upon itself to create simple 3 dimensional geometric structures.

118 Mary Graham

CT

27 28 29 May

I make jewellery and sculptural forms from both porcelain and knitted fine wire. Stainless steel and coloured fine wires are hand knitted into one-off pieces. Ceramic elements are added to give more presence. The pieces look equally good pinned to clothing or on the windowsill.

119 David William Sampson

CTd

27 28 29 May

Inquisitive anthropomorphic forms with forest animals alongside an unnerving combination of feelings for the young. To feel that natural maternal instinct or pity for the flawed, the lost, misunderstood or damaged. A mixture of emotion in a marmite studio space. Come say hi.

120 Johanne Danielle Murfin

CTd

27 28 29 May

The work I create conjures up majestic scenes of unusual plant form, landscapes or animals, whilst keeping some form of abstract elements to allow the viewer to create their own interpretation and connection to the work.

Meet the team 2017

We are a voluntary organisation run by a small team. We work hard to create an enjoyable event for both artists and visitors. If you have an interest in the arts and would like to get involved on the committee, please contact us.

Caroline Mc Farlane. Chair and Advertising. Caroline is a portrait artist working in pencil, pastel and oil, creating traditional portraits with a contemporary feel. She also delivers primary school portrait drawing workshops through Practical Portrait Workshops

Nigel Winter. Treasurer and Committee.

Olinda Everett. Secretary and Committee. Olinda is a potter who works in Ashover, making boxes and sculpture. She draws on Middle Eastern and Southern European ceramic styles. Olinda is a member of the Northern Potters Association and Holymoorside Arts Festival.

Jennie Merriman. Brochure, Website and Committee. Jennie comes from an embroidery background and works as a mixed media textile artist. She is a member of a number of textile groups in Derbyshire, Sheffield, and the North of England, exhibiting and running workshops with them. Her present work focuses on stitch and constructed 3D pieces.

Adrian Holt. Committee. Adrian is a ceramics artist based in Glossop. He joined the team in 2011 having exhibited as an artist for the last four Open Arts events. Adrian aims to promote the arts in the north of the county and recognises the important role that the Derbyshire Open Arts plays in this.

Ann Robson. Editor, Shadow Secretary and Committee. Ann is a weaver, currently concentrating on woven tapestry ideas. Her textiles tend to evolve out of art work which has itself been created as a result of walks. Also she can't help doing a bit of recycling in her fabric, paper and thread projects.

Helen Jagger. Distribution and Committee. Helen has had a lifelong passion for textiles through teaching and then more recently promoting sustainable textiles through her work and classes in the Buxton area.

Dianna Lee. Social media and Committee. Dianna is a wood grain and mural artist known as Artywood working in inks, oils and acrylics. She has a passion for working with the effects of woodgrain and has seen her murals in both domestic homes and show homes. Before becoming an artist Dianna worked in the fashion industry as a clothing designer and illustrator using computer aided design for almost 20 years. Dianna also teaches different techniques in art and helps people to use art as a form of relaxation

Maddy Devitt. Brochure and Committee. Maddy is an art textile teacher who has recently moved from East Anglia to Derbyshire. Here, in Derbyshire, she hopes to focus more on her art work. She has held exhibitions in Suffolk and Essex, works on commissions and supplies local pubs and cafes with her art work. She paints animal faces and land/seascapes and creates mixed media pieces that include print and stitch. Her background is both fine art and art textiles.

Liz Marriott, Distribution and Committee. Having lived in Derbyshire for the last 14 years Liz finds it inspiring to invoke this within her craft work of soft furnishings including hand beaded bedspreads, hearts bags and collage pictures.
