Image: the workspace. Me, sitting facing window. Introduce myself. Smile! 😊
My name is A. and I paint landscapes in oil.

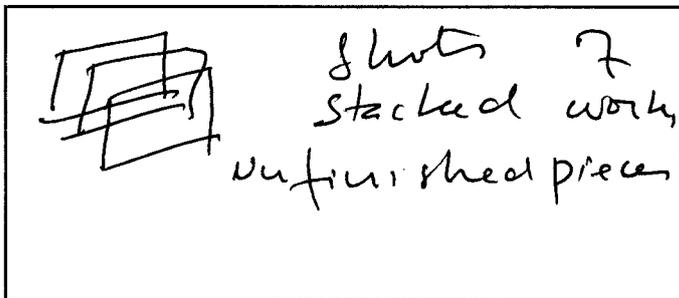

(detail of painting?)
In my work, I focus on meaning, nostalgia, I give an impression, a feeling. Not too much detail.

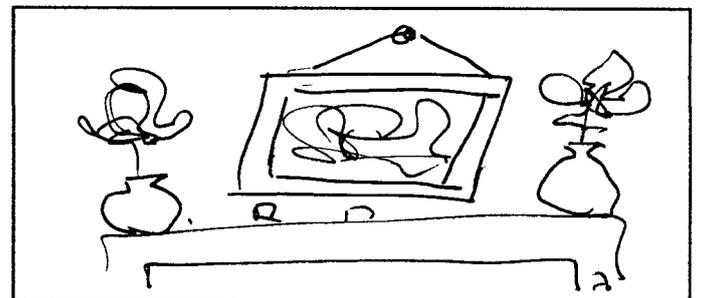

It is important to mix my own lines. I buy the best I can afford, not too many, make friends with well known colours, make.

I often add ^{found} objects to the canvas. Materials that add direction, emphasis, "affiliation". why? why not?!

shots of stacked work, unfinished pieces
It takes me a while to finish a canvas, to make sure it says what I mean. Some work lingers in the studio several years...

final shot of finished work. logo, branding, contacts impressed over it.

THE END!
